

Sunrise Express

<https://www.sunriseexpress.com/job/it-support-technician/>

IT Support Technician

Description

Sunrise Express is looking for a knowledgeable IT Support Technician with experience in end user support, servers, software, basic networking, VM Ware, and project management experience who manages their time well to assist the IT Director and other technicians.

Responsibilities

End user support; project management; VM Ware management, Windows server management and configuration; configuring and managing network devices; configuring and managing Exchange; configuring and managing a SAN; managing network backups; configuring and managing software; configuring and deploying workstations; managing projects and implementations; training end users; and other IT duties as assigned. Must be willing to be on after hours on call duties on a rotating basis and be willing to work a flexible schedule at times.

Qualifications

Five or more years of IT experience; Associates degree in IT related field or certifications preferred; transportation industry experience preferred but not required; experience working with servers; experience working with networking equipment; and experience working with end users providing support.

Apply Now

Hiring organization

Sunrise Express

Date posted

March 3, 2020